

Starting Out

Episode 8 – Brown bread

Julia: Shall we get a sandwich? Are there any good places to eat near here?

Sammy: Yeah. There are loads.

Julia: There's one just here. Shall we go in?

Sammy: No, they're really slow. Let's go to that one there.

Julia: All right!

Julia: Sammy!

Sammy: Yeah? Oh! After you ...

Man: Thank you very much.

Sammy: After you, Julia.

Julia: Thanks.

Sammy: Hi, can I have ...

Man: Hello! Is there any ...

Sammy: After you!

Man: Thank you. Is there any fresh bread?

Baker: Yes. I make everything fresh here every day. What would you like? Brown or white bread?

Man: I see you have lots of white bread.

Baker: There are rolls, baguettes ...

Man: Yes. I want brown bread. Is there any?

Baker: Erm, brown ... Sorry, there isn't. Just white bread left now.

Man: I don't like white bread. ... (on mobile phone) Hello? It's me. There isn't any brown bread. ... No, there's none left. ... OK, I'll ask. ... (to baker) Are there any sandwiches?

Baker: Sandwiches? Yes, there are.

Man: I'll have any sandwich with ...

Baker: Brown bread! Ah, there certainly are. I've got chicken ...

Man: No, I don't like brown bread with sandwiches. Only white bread.

Baker: OK. Well, there are lots of sandwiches ...

Man: With white bread?

Baker: Yes!

Man: What's that one? Is that ham and cheese? Or cheese and ham?

Baker: It's cheese and ham.

Man: Good, because I don't like ham and cheese.

Baker: Right ...

Man: Can I look at it, please?

Baker: Well, OK.

Man: This is cheese and ham?

Baker: That's right.

Man: Hmph! Well, there isn't very much cheese! And there's too much ham!

Baker: I'm very sorry. Would you like to see another one?

Man: Yes, I would.

www.britishcouncil.org/learnenglish